

Deep Water!!!

Drive past the towering trees that create this home's private oasis, up to the fountain on the circular driveway and be greeted by the wrap around front porch of this stunning home in Hollywood.

Situated on a one acre lot, the home has breathtaking views of the water and deep water access from the dock. Be to the intercoastal in just 15 minutes or explore the open ocean in under a half hour!

The crystal clear pool is the perfect place to cool off on a summer's day while soaking up the sun. One of the highlights of this home is the living room with its soaring two story ceiling, built-ins and cozy fireplace. The open floor plan gives way to the gourmet kitchen where you can sit at the breakfast bar or take advantage of the stainless steel double oven. Off of the kitchen is the fantastic, four seasons room with two walls of windows to take in the view and access to the oversized deck.

The spacious owner's retreat features a peaceful sitting room with built-ins, a fireplace, access to the deck, a walk-in closet and a master bath with a custom dual vanity. With high ceilings, hardwood floors and views found throughout the home, you'll want nothing more than to make this house your own! Come see for yourself before it's too late!
