Looking for a large 4 bedroom 3.5 bath home in like new condition in a great sub-division within the Dorchester 2 school district? Check this beautiful home out. It's a must see and priced right. This home sits on a nicely landscaped lot with of backdrop of beautiful of trees. The foyer entrance is two stories high with hardwood floors that lead past a formal living/sitting area and continues through to the family room. The light and bright living room/sitting area is open to the dinning room, has crown molding and is carpeted. What a great place to socialize before dinner in the formal dinning room. The dinning room features hardwood floors, crown molding, chair rail, tray ceiling, shadow boxing and three square architectural windows highlighting one wall. Directly off the dinning room is a large eat-in kitchen, with pantry, crown molding, tile floors and coordinated tile back splash with plenty of granite counter tops and 42 inch upgraded wood cabinets. The upgraded stainless steel appliances convey with the home and the gas stove and oven are a real treat for the gourmet cook in the family. The kitchen also has a cozy breakfast area where you can enjoy informal meals overlooking the back yard woods through the French doors leading to a screen-in porch. Of course there is a breakfast bar with pendant light facing a very large family room with crown molding and gas fireplace. What a nice place to entertain or just hang out. At the other end of the family room are French doors that leading to a private office with a closet which could easily be used as a fifth bedroom. There is also a powder room and good sized laundry room on that end of the home. The staircase to the second floor is just off the family room and features wood top stairs with a landing and has a carpeted runner. The second floor has a spacious hallway with an open galley overlooking the first floor main entrance. There are a total of four bedrooms and three full baths on the second floor. The master suite is separated from the other bedrooms for privacy and features double entry doors, tray ceiling, crown molding, ceiling fan and an attached sitting room. It makes a great secluded place to get away from it all and relax. Of course there is a master bath with raised vanity, dual sinks, soak tub/shower and a huge walk in closet. One of the remaining three second floor bedrooms also has a private full bath and there is another full guest bath with raised vanity and dual sinks. There is a full front porch and the home has been tastefully landscaped. This home is located in Sandpines, a small quite subsection of Wescott Plantation. Wescott Plantation is a golf community located minutes from the Air Force Base, Boeing, Bosch, the airport and shopping.
