

BRAND, REALTORS®

Hello,

My name is Chris Brand.

As most of you know I founded the first 100% company for $200 a month company many years ago.

My company is now called Brand LLC but we advertise BRAND, REALTORS®

If a company is called anything else you are not doing business with my company.

The people who have followed my lead are all doing a very good job but I think my intelligence and the help I can provide agents speaks for itself.

Every day I see their advertisements of long list of promises they will deliver if you join them.

There is a lot that I do for my agents and some of it is listed on the agent information website but most of it isn't. (see below)

All said I am a very smart guy and I can help you.

If you need a CRM or a Website I am not going to give one to you because I can't afford to give you something worthwhile. If you are not using up to date products it will be a hindrance and not a help to your business.

What I am going to do is make a recommendation for a product that actually works and that will give you a realistic chance of out producing the competition.

The way my company is ran is light years ahead of many but I am not going to list all of the details in my ad because it is besides the point.

What you need to know is I am a smart and I am a real estate broker in charge. For what it is worth I also am a sole owner. I have no idea what this means but I see others using it as a selling point.

If you need something I am here to help if you join my team.

At some point I will reduce the amount of agents I accept as my goal is to close real estate transactions and not have a the biggest number of agents.

Please come by and visit or call/text me anytime. My cell is 843-345-2932
