"We are spoiled. We've experienced 'the best'! It was amazing to see how much prep work Scott performed before even putting brush to walls. He's painted the interior and exterior of several homes for us. Houses he did 4 years ago still look like they were finished yesterday. Scott's work ethic is excellent and his quality of work is topnotch."

"Many clients are long time customers. They trust me to do a professional job from start to finish. I believe that preparation is everything. A quality paint job relies on doing solid prep work using the right materials and the best paint."
