We are seeking new agents for our growing firm

Drew Sineath & Associates is seeking hard working real estate agents!

Great working environment with proven systems & tools already in place along with a fantastic marketing and branding program that produces hundreds of leads per month using a one-of-a-kind lead source!

Independent agent plans along with team plans. Need to be self motivated, willing to follow-up, willing to serve others and give more than is expected! Company leads provided along with closing support.

We want agents that can work their own sphere of influence and have 5 or more closings per month! Real estate is hot & qualified characters are welcomed! Experienced preferred but willing to mentor and train the right people. You will need to have a real estate license for this position.

For more information, please contact us at drew@drewsineath.com.
