

101 Hester St

Charleston, SC 29403

$799,900

TONS OF CHARACTER!! This home was originally a “Mother-Daughter” design built in 1938 and radiates charm and historic appeal.

It has been totally renovated down to the studs and converted into a spacious single family 4bd 3.5 ba home with a downstairs bonus room, mudroom, laundry room, completely restored front porches, and a legally compliant studio apartment/dependency in the rear that can be used for guests or to rent out for monthly income. 4th bedroom and 3rd full bath are in efficiency apt.

Home has an open layout with original fireplace. Ceiling beams wrapped in reclaimed early 1900's farmhouse boards. Large master suite w private access to upstairs porch. Large master bath with walk-in closets and custom shelving. Exposed brick from fireplace in master suite. Brand new appliances, HVAC, Tankless Hot Water Heater. Metal Roof. Efficiency apt can be rented out short term (as long as owner occupied) or would make a great guest suite or office. Efficiency unit has a mini split for heating and air.
