This lovely home is graciously proportioned with 11 ft ceilings and is filled with natural light from the over-sized windows and French doors. The stunning new kitchen boasts natural stone counter tops, custom cabinetry, stainless-steel appliances, and is truly built for entertaining, leading to a large covered porch that overlooks the salt-water pool and marsh below. Other features include hardwood floors throughout, three en-suite bedrooms and a bonus room downstairs that opens to a slate patio by the pool offering more space for entertaining and relaxing. Meticulously maintained, the house has a newer roof, 2 newer HVAC systems, a natural gas generator, a tankless water heater and new pool equipment.
