

WE TREAT YOUR CLIENTS LIKE FAMILY

With over 40 years of property management experience, Island Realty is your expert on all aspects of property management in the Charleston area. We are experts in vacation rentals and long-term rentals alike. We recognize we could not provide the quality services to our guests and tenants without each and every owner on our rental program. Therefore, we view them as our partners and treat them as members of the Island Realty family.

We understand every referral reflects back on you, and we want to assure you that we'll treat your clients the same way you do – with care and respect.

With our professional teams of owner representatives and property managers, in-house marketing, housekeeping, maintenance, and guest services, we are able to deliver custom property management solutions to your clients at competitive rates.

Advantages of listing with Island Realty:

- Outstanding results with clear communication and customer satisfaction
- Dedicated Property Manager to address the needs of each rental
- Maximized revenue potential and profitability through market analysis & dynamic pricing
- Strategic and innovative marketing efforts
